Five under-trial prisoners concerned in Arkonam Railway Police Station Crime under sections 393, 397 and 414, Indian Penal Code, were taken by bus from the Sub-Magistrate's Court, Tiruvellore, to the Central Jail, Madras. On the way, near Villivakkam, when one of the prisoners wanted to answer calls of nature, the two Police constables escorting them took them to an open space. The prisoners overpowered them by throwing chilly powder on their face, snatched the bayonet and stabbed one constable, while another prisoner snatched the musket of the other constable and all of them escaped with the bayonet and musket. One Police constable reached Ambattur Police Station and reported the matter. All the accused belong to Andhra. One of the five accused, Rama Rao, was arrested on 11th February 1973 and the musket recovered. Co-ordinated efforts in conjunction with Madras City Police, Railway Police and the C.I.D. are being taken to apprehend the other accused.
